TO: MAILROOM PERSONNEL RESPONSIBLE FOR DELIVERING MAIL TO INMATES

Enclosed you will find an envelope addressed to an inmate. When the envelope is delivered to the inmate, please have the inmate fill in the date at the place provided on the acknowledgment form directly below these instructions, and have the inmate sign their name to acknowledge that they received the correspondence. The person delivering the mail should then sign on the line designated for "Witness." If an inmate should contend they never received a communication from the Court, production or non-production of the receipt will be considered by the Court in disposing of the inmate's contention. For this reason, mailroom personnel are cautioned to organize, file and save the receipts so that the same can be readily found if the issue should arise. The operating head of each institution is aware of this procedure. PLEASE DO NOT SEND COMPLETED RECEIPTS TO THE DISTRICT COURT.
